CIVIL RIGHTS ACT
(CALIFORNIA CIVIL CODE §§ 51, 52);

(2) VIOLATIONS OF THE AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT OF 1990

I.
SUMMARY

1. This is a civil rights action by plaintiff John Ho (“Plaintiff”) for discrimination at the building, structure, facility, complex, property, land, development, and/or surrounding shopping center bearing the legal address of 3832 Sepulveda Blvd, Torrance, CA 90505-2408, Los Angeles County, and encompassing the entire exterior parking lot identified as APN 7368-001-029 where the business the “Daiso” operates (the “Property”). Plaintiff frequents the area for dining, shopping and entertainment as the area has a number of popular dinning and shopping areas and is located approximately 40 minutes from his residence. In this particular instance, Plaintiff desired to patronize the “Daiso” store located on the property.

2. Plaintiff seeks damages, injunctive and declaratory relief, attorney’s fees and costs pursuant to the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (42 U.S.C. §§ 12101, et seq.) and related California statutes¹ against the owners of the property DUEWAY INVESTMENT, LLC, a limited liability company (“Defendant”).

4 PARTIES

5 7. On information and belief, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant is or was at 6 the time of the incident, the owner, operator, lessor and/or lessee of the Property, and 7 consist of a person (or persons), firm, company, and/or corporation.

8 8. Plaintiff is a T-12 paraplegic, and as a result is unable to walk or stand,
9 and thus requires a use of a wheelchair at all times when traveling in public. Plaintiff
10 is “physically disabled” as defined by all applicable California and United States laws, 11 and a member of the public whose rights are protected by these laws. Plaintiff is a 12 resident of Los Angeles County, California. Plaintiff is considered a high frequency 13 litigant as that term is defined in California Code of Civil Procedure § 425.55(b). In 14 the twelve months preceding the filing of this complaint, Plaintiff filed seventeen (17) 15 other construction accessibility related claims (not including this one).

16 V.

17 FACTS

18 9. On February 7, 2022, Plaintiff patronized the Property. The Property is a 19 sales or retail establishment, open to the public, which is intended for nonresidential 20 use and whose operation affects commerce.

21 10. Plaintiff visited the Property and encountered barriers (both physical and 22 intangible) that interfered with – if not outright denied – Plaintiff’s ability to use and 23 enjoy the goods, services, privileges and accommodations offered at the facility. To 24 the extent known by Plaintiff, the barriers at the Property included, but are not limited 25 to the following:

- 26
27 a. Parking spaces designated as accessible and accompanying access aisles
28 have slopes and/or cross slopes that exceed 2.0%. Without a level

1 parking space, it is difficult for Plaintiff to unload/transfer from a vehicle
2 as his wheelchair rolls.

3 b. To access the sidewalks and stores, Plaintiff must traverse up a built-up
4 curb ramp that is too steep. To the extent that the curb ramp is intended
5 to be a ramp, it does not have the necessary railings for Plaintiff to safely
6 maneuver up and down.

7 c. Accessible parking spaces are not properly marked and maintained. For 8 example, pavement marking is severely faded making it difficult for 9 Plaintiff to determine which spaces will accommodate Plaintiff's
10 disability. Additionally, there is loose gravel and broken pavement
11 within accessible parking spaces and access aisles. These conditions 12 make it difficult for Plaintiff as small loose pieces of gravel can get 13 caught in Plaintiff's wheelchair causing him to lose balance and tip over.

14 11. These barriers to access are listed without prejudice to Plaintiff citing 15 additional barriers to access after inspection by Plaintiff's access consultant, per the 16 9th Circuits standing standards under Doran v. 7-Eleven, Inc. 524 F.3d 1034 (9th Cir.
17 2008). These barriers prevented Plaintiff from enjoying full and equal access to the 18 Property.

19 12. Plaintiff thus experienced difficulty and discomfort as a result of the 20 accessible barriers he encountered. Although he would like to return to the Property 21 to patronize the convenience store at the Property, he continues to be deterred from 22 visiting the Property because of the future threats of injury created by these barriers.
23 Plaintiff often frequents the area as he enjoys the shops, beaches and dining offered in 24 Torrance. Within 6 months of the correction of any barriers, Plaintiff would return to 25 the Property to not only patronize the stores on the Property, but to also ensure that 26 accessible barriers have been properly removed and/or corrected.

27 13. On information and belief, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant knew that 28 these elements and areas of the Property were inaccessible, violate state and federal

1 law, and interfere with (or deny) access to the physically disabled. Moreover,
 2 Defendant has the financial resources to remove these barriers from the Property
 3 (without much difficult or expense), and make the Property accessible to the 4 physically disabled. To date, however, the Defendant refuses to remove those 5 barriers.

6 14. On information and belief, Plaintiff alleges that at all relevant times, 7 Defendant has possessed and enjoyed sufficient control and authority to modify the 8 Property to remove impediments to wheelchair access and to comply with the 9 Americans with Disabilities Act Accessibility Guidelines and Title 24 regulations.
 10 Defendant has not removed such impediments and have not modified the Property to 11 conform to accessibility standards.

12 VI. FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION: VIOLATION OF CALIFORNIA LAW
 13 INCLUDING: THE UNRUH ACT, CIVIL CODE §§ 51, 52 AND THE 14 AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT AS INCORPORATED BY CIVIL 15 CODE SECTION 51(f)

16 15. Plaintiff incorporates the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 17 14 for this claim and incorporates them herein.

18 16. At all times relevant to this complaint, California Civil Code § 51 has 19 provided that physically disabled persons are free and equal citizens of the state, 20 regardless of disability or medical condition:

21 All persons within the jurisdiction of this state are free and equal, and 22 no matter what their sex, race, color, religion, ancestry, national 23 origin, disability, or medical condition are entitled to the full and 24 equal accommodations, advantages, facilities, privileges, or services
 25 in all business establishments of every kind whatsoever. Cal. Civ.
 26 Code § 51(b).

27 17. California Civil Code § 52 provides that the discrimination against 28 Plaintiff on the basis of his disabilities constitutes a violation of the anti-

1 discrimination provisions of §§ 51 and 52.

2 18. Defendant's discrimination constitutes a separate and distinct violation of 3 California Civil Code § 52 which provides that:

4 Whoever denies, aids or incites a denial, or makes any discrimination 5 or distinction contrary to section 51, 51.5 or 51.6 is liable for each and 6 every offense for the actual damages, and any amount that may be 7 determined by a jury, or a court sitting without a jury, up to a
8 maximum of three times the amount of actual damage but in no case 9 less than four thousand dollars ($4,000) and any attorney's fees that 10 may be determined by the court in addition thereto, suffered by any 11 person denied the rights provided in Section 51, 51.5 or 51.6.

12 19. Plaintiff continues to be deterred from visiting the Subject Property based 13 upon the existence of the accessible barriers. In addition to the instance of 14 discrimination occurring in February 2022, Plaintiff is entitled to $4,000.00 in 15 statutory damages for each additional occurrence of discrimination under California
16 Civil Code § 52.

17 20. Any violation of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (as pled in 18 the Third Cause of Action) constitutes a violation of California Civil Code § 51(f) 19 thus independently justifying an award of damages and injunctive relief pursuant to 20 California law. Per § 51(f), "[a] violation of the right of any individual under the 21 Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 ... shall also constitute a violation of this 22 section."

23 21. The actions and omissions of Defendant as herein alleged constitute a 24 denial of access to and use of the described public facilities by physically disabled
25 persons within the meaning of California Civil Code §§ 51 and 52. As a proximate 26 result of Defendant's action and omissions Defendant has discriminated against 27 Plaintiff in a violation of Civil Code §§ 51 and 51.

VII.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION: VIOLATION OF THE AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT OF 1990 (42 USC §§ 12101 et seq.)

22. Plaintiff incorporates the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 21 for this claim and incorporates them herein.

23. As part of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (“ADA”), Congress passed “Title III – Public Accommodations and Services Operated by Private Entities.” 42 U.S.C. § 12181 et seq. The Property is one of the “private entities” which are considered “public accommodations” for purposes of this title, which includes any “restaurant, bar, or other sales or rental establishment serving food or drink.” § 301(7)(B).

24. The ADA states that “[n]o individual shall be discriminated against on the basis of disability in the full and equal enjoyment of the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, or accommodations of any place of public accommodation by any person who owns, leases, or leases to, or operates a place of public accommodation.” 42 U.S.C. § 12182.

25. The acts and omissions of Defendant set forth herein were in violation of Plaintiff’s rights under the ADA and the regulations promulgated thereunder, 28 CFR Part 36 et seq.

26. On information and belief, Plaintiff alleges that the Property was constructed or altered after January 26, 1993 thus triggering requirements for removal of barriers to access for disabled persons under § 303 of the ADA. Further on information and belief, Plaintiff alleges that removal of each of the barriers complained of by Plaintiff as hereinabove alleged, were at all times herein mentioned “readily achievable” under the standards §§ 301 and 302 of the ADA. As noted hereinabove, removal of each and every one of the architectural barriers complained of herein were also required under California law. In the event that removal of any barrier is found to be “not readily achievable,” Defendant still violated the ADA, per § 302(b)(2)(A)(v) by failing to provide all goods, services, privileges, advantages and

1 accommodations through alternative methods that were readily achievable.

2 27. On information and belief, as of the date of Plaintiff's encounter at the 3 Property and as of the filing of this Complaint, the Defendant denies and continues to 4 deny full and equal access to Plaintiff and to other disabled persons, including 5 wheelchair users, in other respects, which violate plaintiff's rights to full and equal 6 access and which discriminate against Plaintiff on the basis of his disability, thus 7 wrongfully denying to plaintiff the full and equal enjoyment of the goods, services,
8 facilities, privileges, advantages and accommodations, in violation of §§ 302 and 303
9 of the ADA. 42 USC §§ 12182 and 12183.

10 28. On information and belief, Defendant has continued to violate the law
11 and deny the rights of Plaintiff and other disabled persons to access this public 12 accommodation since on or before Plaintiff's encounters, as previously noted.
13 Pursuant to the ADA, § 308, 42 USC 12188 et seq., Plaintiff is entitled to the 14 remedies and procedures set forth in § 204(a) of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, 42 USC
15 2000(a)-3(a), as Plaintiff is being subjected to discrimination on the basis of disability
16 in violation of the ADA or has reasonable grounds for believing that he is about to be 17 subjected to discrimination. Pursuant to § 308(a)(2), "In cases of violations of § 302(b) 18)(2)(A)(iv) and § 303(a) ... injunctive relief shall include an order to alter facilities to 19 make such facilities readily accessible to and usable by individuals with disabilities to 20 the extent required by this title."

21 29. Plaintiff seeks relief pursuant to remedies set forth in § 204(a) of the Civil 22 Rights Act of 1964, 42 USC 2000(a)-3(a), and pursuant to Federal Regulations
23 adopted to implement the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990. Plaintiff is a 24 qualified disabled person for purposes of § 308(a) of the ADA who is being subjected 25 to discrimination on the basis of disability in violation of Title III and who has 26 reasonable grounds for believing he will be subjected to such discrimination each time 27 that he may attempt to use the property and premises.

28 PRAYER

1 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays that this court award damages and provide relief
2 as follows:

3 1. Issue a preliminary and permanent injunction directing Defendant as current 4 owner, operator, lessor, and/or lessee of the property and premises to modify the 5 above described property and premises and related facilities so that each provides full 6 and equal access to all persons, including but not limited to persons with physical 7 disabilities who use wheelchairs, and issue a preliminary and permanent injunction
8 directing Defendant to provide and maintain facilities usable by plaintiff and similarly 9 situated persons with disabilities, and which provide full and equal access, as required
10 by law, including appropriate changes in policy;

11 2. Retain jurisdiction over the Defendant until such time as the Court is satisfied 12 that Defendant unlawful policies, practices, acts and omissions, and maintenance of 13 inaccessible public facilities as complained of herein no longer occur, and cannot 14 recur;

15 3. Award to Plaintiff all appropriate damages, including but not limited to 16 statutory damages, general damages and treble damages in amounts within the 17 jurisdiction of this Court, all according to proof;

18 4. Award to Plaintiff all reasonable statutory attorney fees, litigation expenses, and 19 costs of this proceeding as provided by law;

20 5. Award to Plaintiff prejudgment interest pursuant to California Civil 17 Code§ 21 329

22 6. Grant such other and further relief as this Court may deem just and proper.
